1. About the Publication Scheme

   Every public authority covered by the Freedom of Information Law has a legal duty to maintain a publication scheme.

   The purpose of a publication scheme is to make information readily available to the public without the need for specific written requests. Schemes are intended to encourage authorities to proactively publish information, to develop a culture of openness and participation.

   The publication scheme lists the information which is readily available to the public.
The list is divided into seven (7) different categories of information, to help you find the documents you are looking for.

This publication scheme commits the ELECTIONS OFFICE to making information available to the public as part of its normal business activities.

The ELECTIONS OFFICE will:

- specify the information held by the authority, which falls within the seven (7) categories below;
- proactively publish or otherwise make routinely available, information which is held by the authority and falls within the categories below;
- describe the methods by which specific information is made available, so that it may be easily identified and accessed by members of the public;
- list any fees charged for access to information described in this scheme;
- publish or otherwise make information available, in accordance with the methods and fees stated in this scheme;
- make this publication scheme available to the public;
- regularly review and update the information made available under this scheme.

2. Information that may be withheld

The ELECTIONS OFFICE will generally not publish:

- information in draft form;
- information that is not held by the ELECTIONS OFFICE, or which has been disposed of in accordance with a legally authorised disposal schedule;
- information that is not readily-available – for example: information that is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is otherwise difficult to access;
- Information which is exempt under the FOI Law or otherwise protected from disclosure – for example: personal information; or commercially sensitive information. Records containing exempt matter will be published in a redacted form, wherever it is practical to do so, indicating which exemptions apply.

In maintaining this publication scheme, our aim is to be as open as possible.

1 A copy of the record, with the exempt matter deleted in accordance with the National Archive’s Redaction Standard.
However, there may be limited circumstances where information will be withheld from one of the categories of information listed in section 7: Categories of information.

Information will only be withheld where the FOI Law expressly permits it.

For example, where disclosure would breach the law of confidentiality, infringe personal privacy, harm the ELECTIONS OFFICE (or another organization’s) commercial interests, or endanger the protection of the environment.

Whenever information is withheld, we will inform you of this and explain why that information cannot be released. Even where information is withheld, it may be possible to provide a redacted copy, with the exempt matter edited out.

If you wish to complain about any information which has been withheld, please refer to section 6: Complaints.

9. Frequently Asked Questions:

9.1. Where and how do I vote?

There are 17 polling divisions situated throughout the six electoral districts. Once you register to vote and provide your street address the Elections Office will assign you to a polling division. On Election Day you will have to attend this assigned polling division and you will be directed to your polling station. The presiding officer will provide you with a ballot paper, after you have shown your Elector Registration card or otherwise identified yourself. You will then be instructed on the election voting procedures. You will subsequently enter a poll booth and mark your ballot paper by putting an X to the right of the candidate or candidates’ names that you are voting for. In the case of:

- North Side you may vote for 1 candidate only
- East End you may vote for 1 candidate only
- Cayman Brac & Little Cayman you may vote for up to 2 candidates
- Bodden Town you may vote for up to 4 candidates
- West Bay you may vote for up to 4 candidates
- George Town you may vote for up to 6 candidates

You must hand your ballot paper to the presiding officer who will then detach the counterfoil and return the ballot paper to you for you to deposit into the ballot box. After doing so, you will then leave the polling station through the referendum station.

The referendum voting process is similar to the election process, however, in all electoral districts you may vote for 1 answer only by placing an X.

9.2. Do I need any form of identification when I show up to vote?

Yes. The preferred form of identification will be the Cayman Islands Elector Registration Card. Other forms of identification such as a valid Driver’s License or Passport will also be accepted.

9.3. What time do the polls open and close?

The polls in all 6 electoral districts open promptly at 7:00 A.M. and close at 6:00 P.M.
9.4. Can I vote if I will be off-island on Election Day?

The Elections Law provides that if you are off-island for any reason whatsoever you may apply for a postal ballot using Form B. Postal ballots will only be issued after Nomination day and prior to Election Day.
